Work experience

Policy Officer – Netherlands Initiative for Education Research August 2018 – currently

As junior policy officer I am responsible for the smooth running of the Comenius grant programmes and of the Programme Council for Practice-Oriented Research in Higher Education. My daily tasks involve among others contacting international referees and assembling assessment committees who assess the proposals. I prepare these meetings and communicate the judgement of the committee to the applicants through a motivation letter. Furthermore, I facilitate the communication with the Ministry of Education and manage the NRO project database. To further my skills in this area I will follow a course in Visualising Science with VOSviewer at Leiden University in April.

Intern at the Ministry of Education, Culture and Science September 2017 – June 2018

I was part of the strategy team with two other colleagues and team innovation, with 7 others primary tasks: organising the allocation of the Comenius education grants, contributing to setting up the Comenius Network at the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences, secretary for and contributing to the writing of the 2018 higher education sector-agreements, and data-analysis for the OECD benchmark project

Board year – Leiden Model United Nations Foundation January 2017 – February 2018

Together with 5 other board members, we ran this debating foundation. My primary tasks involved teaching university students in workshops on public speaking, resolution writing, lobbying/negotiation and policy research. Furthermore, I supervised some of our trips abroad.

Hobbies and interests

I grew up dancing classical ballet, lyrical jazz and musical show dance. I now exercise my fondness of dance through ballroom and Latin, and swing dance classes every Tuesday night. I further enjoy playing the piano (classically) and singing (jazz) and do so oftentimes with my family. Aside from these more social activities, I like to spend time alone hiking, if I get a chance to get away, preferably in the mountains. I thoroughly enjoy reading too, especially historical novels. My latest good read was “The Eight Mountains” by Paolo Cognetti.
